

Your Majesties Kjartan and Sha'ya,

Be it known to all who read these words that I, Agmundr Glúmsson, loyal subject of the Sable Lions of An Tir hereby request that you consider my claim upon the Coronets of the Barony of Blatha An Oir. The claim that I make I do for the love of my Barony and my wish to see the lands of the Golden Blossom prosper. Three points I shall make to prove true my claim:

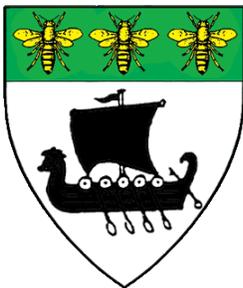

First, I am inspired eternally by the lady Francisca Rosil, who shall administer the Barony at my side in regal fashion, ever faithful and true as my Baroness. Were it not for her beauty, wisdom, tolerance, gentleness, service, and compassion I would not be the man I am today. She is keen of wit and strong character, and her voice as my counsel in the daily demands of the Barony shall be ever mindful as is her devotion to the Barony, it's Sergeantry, and the populace therein;

Second, I am champion of Blatha An Oir and therefore the next in the line of succession to the Coronet. This is not a boast, for I have proven myself a loyal subject to the crown, fair to all people of the realm, wise yet true in my dealings, and possessing the might to defend the borders of the Barony and when called upon to defend your Kingdom;

Third, the Lady Francisca and I believe that the life blood and continued success of the Barony, An Tir, and the SCA in its entirety rests on the shoulders of newcomers. We believe that it is critical to encourage both newcomers and veterans to branch out into new activities within the SCA, and strongly urge new people to contribute to leadership roles within our Barony. Further, we believe in a equitable and inclusive SCA, and shall strive to have the populace of the Barony reflect our pledge.

If it is your Majesties will, the Lady Francisca and I would hold and manage the land of the Golden Blossom for your Majesties with all that we hold dear. We pledge to exercise good lordship over your lands and people, treating all as we would our own. We will recognize the good works of Blatha An Oir's citizens and provide council as befitting your loyal subjects in all matters that pertain to the Barony of Blatha An Oir.

- The Honorable Lord Agmundr Glúmsson
