

The Blatherings

Spring AS L (Gregorian 2016) The Barony of Blatha an Oir

Words from Their Excellencies Hengist and Maricka:

Greeting unto this fine Barony.

Spring has finally reached us. The sun kisses our upturned faces and warms the earth. The wet winter has given us plenty of water for our gardens to thrive.

With the coming of Spring and the warm weather we see lots of great things on the horizon for our great Barony. We have some great events coming up stewarded by some amazing people.

Fight practice has once again moved to Tuesday nights at the school. We look forward to getting back into training and practice. We must be prepared for WAR!!!

I want to thank our Brewers Guild for making a fine English ale for 100 beers war this year. Thank you also to those who volunteer. From the kitchen staff, to those helping at parking, at gate and to our crafter's who make wonderful largesse and pair our scrolls.

Remember, we have polling coming up. Everyone who is a member should be at polling. It's your Barony, get involved.

Welcome to Bealidh Pursuivant's Corner!

Oh, the waiting game of the submission process.

You've taken your idea to the heralds. They asked you a million and one questions. They told you everything looked clear of conflict. You sent in your name and device just like they told you to, and now, you're waiting. Don't the herald's understand that it's been months and all you want to know is if you can finally display the silk banner you made right after you saw them?

Yes, dear submitter we know. We want nothing more than for you to proudly display your arms. We want you to rejoice when your name is shouted from the tourney field. And you will get to do all those things once the submission process is complete. It is roughly a 6 to 9 month process. Why so long? Well, let's break it down. A simplistic breakdown of the process can be done in five parts: submission to kingdom, kingdom commentary, submission to Laurel Sovereign of Arms (the chief Herald in the SCA), external commentary, and Letter of Acceptance and Returns.

Once you've mailed your submission or turned it in to an authorized consultation table, Lions Blood Herald & Boar Pursuivant create an internal Kingdom Letter of Intent which is then posted for Kingdom commentary. During this month heralds within the kingdom and a few from without will double check all the documentation and make sure that your consulting heralds didn't miss a conflict. It does happen. If everything checks out, at the end of that 30-day time Lions Blood will issue their decision letter showing all the names and devices that are being forwarded to the Laurel Sovereign of Arms and the College of Arms and those that are being returned to the submitter for some adjustments.

The College of Arms (senior heralds from each of the Kingdoms) will comment on every Kingdom's Letter for about 3 months. This is followed by about a month of discussion between Laurel Sovereign at Arms, Pelican Sovereign of Arms (who concentrates on names), and Wreath Sovereign of Arms (who concentrates on armory). After the Sovereigns at Arms make their decisions they start compiling the Letter of Acceptance and Returns. The College takes about a month to proofread this Letter because we want to minimize the chance that any errors are published in the Letter. Once that month is up the Letter of Acceptance and Returns is issued and you should be notified by your Kingdom herald with the results.

If you are ever curious about what the status of your submission is, please don't hesitate to ask your consulting herald. They should be able to track it for you. Also, we want you to know that when we say that we can't talk to you about commentary it's not because we're trying to hide something from you. Commentary is a bit like Vegas-what happens in Commentary stays in Commentary. This is to save everyone's peace of mind.

So stay excited. The time will go faster than you think, and soon that name and device will be yours for as long as you wish in the SCA.

Yours In Service,
Sayyida Zahra bint al-Rammah
Bealidh Pursuivant
