

January 2019 Barony of Blatha An Oir Business Meeting Minutes 1-24-19

exchequer- balance is $32,007.88

Herald- nothing to report

Heavy Marshal- practices are happening when there are no big events

Rapier Marshal- no report

Archery Marshal- Practices are happening as long as there is no rain

Lists- Nothing to report

Chronicler- There was interest in the newsletter being published again. I will be putting up a poll on facebook asking who wants to see that happen and who is willing to help create content for it. If the populace doesn't help then it isn't a feasible thing to do.

Webminister- The website is mostly working. Please, do not approach the web team with large projects for the next few months they need to get everything updated that is already there.

Arts and Sciences- Several sewing nights happened last month. The culinary night was marzipan. Additional weekend sewing classes are being scheduled soon.

Scribe- All caught up on scrolls for our Barony. Have been helping Aquaterra Chatelaine- Had the opportunity to talk to several other chatelaines at 12th night. We will be starting newcomers style classes at the social that other baronies have done with good results.

Gold Key- Open position

Hospitality- Several members of the barony will be providing a baronial corner at Urselmas.

Family Activities- Open

Past Events- None to report

Future Events-

Candlemas- Court will be at 5 with dinner at 6:30. Games and classes are being worked on as well as songs and other entertainment. Site tokens are done

Sargents Trials- Letters of intent for trials are due at Candlemas

Autumn War- Bids are being accepted. The Seneshal has given permission for the Webminister to hound the event team for the theme of the event when the event team is announced.

Their Excellencies- 12th night was fantastic. Lots of the populace was there. Very excited to see more peers in the Barony.

Seneschal- Starting in Febuary the business meeting will be on the third Thursday of the month. The polling schedule should be announced at Candlemas with the change over for the cornets at Autumn War.
